

LIBERTY LATIN AMERICA GIVES BACK TO COMMUNITIES ACROSS LATIN AMERICA AND THE CARIBBEAN DURING ANNUAL ‘MISSION WEEK’

- Employees and partners contributed 8,900 volunteer hours spanning 22 countries
- Connectivity services were provided to more than 600 people in underprivileged communities

Denver, Colorado – December 5, 2024: Liberty Latin America Ltd. (“Liberty Latin America” or “LLA”) (NASDAQ: LILA and LILAK, OTC Link: LILAB) encouraged employees across the region to give back in local communities through its annual Mission Week volunteer initiative. More than 850 employees across 22 countries volunteered during the week of November 11 – 15. The Company’s commitment to Mission Week continues to grow, and this year, LLA employees and partners contributed more than 8,900 hours of volunteer service across Latin America and the Caribbean.

Serving others is at the heart of LLA’s culture. The Company and its team members are passionate and committed to making a difference in the areas of Learning, Environment, Access, and Disaster Relief. During Mission Week, activities included the contribution of connectivity services to more than 600 people that were previously unconnected, meal donations to more than 1,200 people in need, coastline clean-up projects where more than 1,900 pounds of trash was collected, and the production and execution of a UNICEF concert where the Costa Rica Philharmonic performed to raise funds for children across the country, among many other efforts. A video recap of Liberty Latin America’s Mission Week activities can be found here.

Michael Coakley, VP, Head of Communications, Liberty Latin America, said, "Mission Week embodies our purpose at Liberty Latin America to connect communities and change lives. It's about making a tangible difference, and ensuring that every employee has the opportunity to give back to their local community in a meaningful way. This week, we not only highlight our community contributions but also focus on empowering our teams, fostering collaboration, and building partnerships. Mission Week helps us to inspire each other and reaffirms our commitment to being a force for positive change.”

Liberty Latin America provides additional philanthropic support through the Company’s charitable foundations: Cable & Wireless Charitable Foundation, Cable & Wireless Panama Foundation, Jamaica Flow Foundation, and Liberty Puerto Rico Foundation.

To learn more about Liberty Latin America’s Corporate Social Responsibility program, please click here.

ABOUT LIBERTY LATIN AMERICA

Liberty Latin America is a leading communications company operating in over 20 countries across Latin America and the Caribbean under the consumer brands BTC, Flow, Liberty and Más Móvil. The communications and entertainment services that we offer to our residential and business customers in the region include digital video, broadband internet, telephony and mobile services. Our business products and services include enterprise-grade connectivity, data center, hosting and managed solutions, as well as information technology solutions with customers ranging from small and medium enterprises to international companies and governmental agencies. In addition, Liberty Latin America operates a subsea and terrestrial fiber optic cable network that connects approximately 40 markets in the region.

Liberty Latin America has three separate classes of common shares, which are traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbols “LILA” (Class A) and “LILAK” (Class C), and on the OTC link under the symbol “LILAB” (Class B).

For more information, please visit www.lla.com or contact:

Investor Relations:

Kunal Patel ir@lla.com

Media Relations:

Kim Larson llacommunications@lla.com